FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James L. Adams named President

Rheems, PA (August 26)-- On August 26, James L. Adams was named President of Wenger's Feed Mill, Inc. by the Board of Directors. Jim will retain his title of Chief Operating Officer, and the new position will add to Jim's responsibilities for the day to day operation of the company.

Jim holds a B.S. in Poultry Technology and Management from Penn State University and an MBA, also from Penn State. He was hired in June 1980 to develop a feed and poultry health quality assurance laboratory and later worked in feed formulation and managed Wenger's service department. Jim was named Chief Operating Officer in June 1999 and Vice President in July 2000.

Besides Jim's extensive experience with the company, his respect and involvement within the industry will be an asset in his position as president. Jim served as Chairman of the Board of the Pennsylvania Poultry Federation, Chairman of the Poultry Health Committee, Chairman of PennAg's Poultry Council, and served two terms as President of PennAg Industries Association. Jim currently serves on the Board of the U.S. Poultry and Egg Association and is Vice President of the Landis Valley Association for the Landis Valley Farm Museum.

Barry Shaw will remain as Chief Executive Officer.
