FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wenger's announces New Additions to Sales and Marketing Department

Rheems, PA (August 4, 2008) — Wenger's Feed Mill, Inc. is pleased to announce three new hires in its Sales and Marketing Department. "We are fortunate to have hired three enthusiastic individuals who bring their industry experience and unique perspective to Wenger Feeds to help grow our business," noted Dave Dell, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Wenger's.

Eric Miller has been hired as Wenger's Business Development Coordinator and will assist customers in finding new facilities to grow their business and focus on the future growth of Wenger Feeds. Eric was previously employed by CNH America, LLC, where he served as the New Holland Agriculture Sales Manager for eastern New York, Connecticut, and Massachusetts. Eric holds a degree in Agricultural Business Management from Penn State University and currently lives in Landisville with his wife, Sarah.

Hired as Swine Account Leader, Scott Bailey will assist Wenger Feeds swine customers and develop new business. Scott was previously employed by Country View Family Farms, where he was Genetic Program Manager. Scott lives in New Holland with his wife Franci and children, Caitlin and Niall. He holds a Business Administration degree from Albright College and brings with him 18 years experience in the swine industry.

Finally, Dan McNally joined Wenger Feeds as Poultry Account Leader with responsibility for both layer and broiler accounts. Dan was most recently a Sales Support Coordinator at Manitowoc Crane Group in Shady Grove, PA. A resident of Harrisburg, Dan earned a degree in Agribusiness Business Management from Penn State University and is currently pursuing a Master's of Science in Organizational Development and Leadership from Shippensburg University.
