Wenger Feeds adds jobs at Mount Joy location,
Feed Manufacturer's mill moves to 24/7 production

Rheems, PA (May 5, 2009) — Wenger Feeds is pleased to announce the addition of a production day and four new positions at the company's Mount Joy facility. "The mill currently operates until Saturday afternoon, and we're moving the schedule to 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The change will allow us to better serve our customers," noted Geoff Finch, Chief Operating Officer.

The labor requirements to implement a 24-hour schedule add three positions in manufacturing and one in maintenance. Employees will work 12-hour shifts alternating between three and four day work weeks. This schedule is identical to the one developed by employees and used at Wenger's Rheems Mill, which implemented 24/7 production last year.

"Demand for our poultry and swine feeds continues to grow, and we're happy to be able to make this change to increase production and better utilize our facility to meet customer needs," noted Geoff Finch. The Mount Joy facility is one of six mills in the company's network, which serve the Mid-Atlantic region.
