Nine Receive Scholarships from the Wenger's Feed Mill Scholarship Foundation

Rheems, PA (July 15, 2015) – Wenger Feeds is pleased to announce the winners of the inaugural Wenger's Feed Mill Scholarship Foundation. The company launched the Foundation in April 2015 to award academic scholarships exclusively to eligible full-time team members of the company. "We value the commitment our team members have to the organization and felt this was one way we could show our appreciation for their hard work," noted Barry Shaw, Executive Chairman of the Board.

Individual awards were determined by the Board of Directors of the Wenger's Feed Mill Scholarship Foundation, an entity set up separately from the company. Awards were available for use at accredited colleges or universities, community colleges, as well as trade and technical schools.

The 2015 recipients and their Pennsylvania home towns are as follows: Samuel David Aungst of Elizabethtown, Caitlin Bailey of New Holland, Brianna Buffington of Leck Kill, Justin Drescher of Mount Joy, Leah Hammaker of Elizabethtown, Nathan Henry of Manheim, Dylan Hoffer of Manheim, Charity Marvin of Shickshinny, and Beau Walmer of Elizabethtown.

"The scholarships were awarded exclusively to eligible team members, and we received applications from throughout our company in nearly every division," noted Jamie Rowley, Chief Administrative Officer. In total, the Foundation awarded $45,000 in scholarships.
