FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wenger Feeds Welcomes Christ Kambesis as Chief Operating Officer

Rheems, PA (February 8, 2018) – Wenger Feeds is pleased to announce the addition of Christ Kambesis as Chief Operating Officer.

Christ will be responsible for manufacturing, transportation and quality assurance operations including seven milling locations, a soybean processing plant, and a truck garage.

“In addition to strong leadership skills, Christ brings decades of experience in manufacturing to our organization. We are excited to welcome him to our team,” noted Geoff Finch, Chief Executive Officer at The Wenger Group.

A resident of Elizabethtown Borough, Christ previously served as Vice President of Global Manufacturing for Church & Dwight Company, Inc. based in Ewing, New Jersey. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Engineering and an MBA both from Purdue University.

Wenger Feeds, a regional poultry and swine feed manufacturer serving the Mid-Atlantic region, is a member of the Wenger Group™, a comprehensive Agricultural Company offering Feed, Ingredients, Eggs and Egg Marketing, Flock Services, and Pullet Growing.
